To the Class of 2010-I leave all of the memories of high school that will last forever. Thanks for four wonderful years. Jessica- Where can I begin? Jessica Buzinski- I leave you everything and anything. You have been my best friend since kindergarten and nothing ever changed that. We have so many memories that I couldn't even explain to anyone. You are seriously like the sister I never had; I love you. We can seriously do nothing and still wanna hang out. Don't ever forget any of these memories. I know I won't. Remember Country Junction and our videos! Bee hunting, Pie Guy, and Smarty Hearty! Our walk to McDonalds at like 8:30 in the morning, which took so long. I remember going over to your house and making you lock up your dog because I was afraid and playing in that dirt mound in the back of your yard. In the snow, we used to be "tigers"; those were the best times of my life. Your dad bought us rabbits that one time, and not too long into them being at your house, they passed away. That was sad. Nobody can replace you Jess; you're one in a million. We are going to be friends forever, and nothing can take that away from me. We are going to be those little old ladies in rocking chairs on your farm's front porch talking about our past memories and laughing. Oh, and we will be next door neighbors. We used to sit on our beds or wherever we were, and talk about how we would be friends forever, and well we have a pretty good start to that, only like 100 more years to go. You're my best friend Jess,

Amanda Schippers

Kelsey, I leave you with 14 years of friendship. From kicking on the walls at dance class, to sharing our 18th birthday together. You have been there for me through every step of the way, and when I needed you most. I know I don't have to worry about losing you, because if we lasted 14 years, we will be friends forever. Basically I say your life is at risk all the time, but I wouldn't be able to function if I actually lost you. I will never forget our saran wrapping adventures, even though we were far from sneaky, our long car drives, nights when we stayed up so late we didn't know what we were talking about, Ruso's pizza, dance parties, the 'shake it' dance, Taylor Swift concert, and last but not least, ROFLZ WAFFLEZ. Taytay-Baybay, I leave you with your psycho-ness, if that's a word. I can't believe how close we have become in the past couple of years, and I've loved every minute of it. Even though you spazz out on me, and drive me crazy sometimes, I'm so happy you are one of my best friends. We can be absolutely crazy together, celebrate 'green days' at Knobels, and make new friends everywhere we go. I know for a fact that after the years of being friends, nothing is going to take that from us, no matter the distance. I love our winky face attacks and I appreciate you and Kelsey helping me out when I needed it with a certain someone. Oh, and I'm super jealous Lady Gaga called you, totally not fair! Briana, Scallywag, BFFN. I leave you with my food in the kitchen. I hate how you can eat like a pig and not gain a pound. I enjoy how much we complain together about everything, and how we can be complete fools and say what's on our minds without a care. Our summers spent together are beyond memorable; especially our scooter rides till it would get dark. Soccer camp was the most amazing experience ever, and will never forget a second from that. "You can call me Karis." Rapping with you is always entertaining. We fight and share clothing just like we are sisters. By the way, I want my stuff back. I will miss spending all of my time with you, but I know whether we go to the same college or not, we will never stop being besties. Also, I will greatly miss your abnormally long arms, but you like your arms, so you're welcome for the compliment. Addison, I leave you with many, many years of friendship. We go and I never want to lose you! I love you Jessica Nicole. Alyssa Horwath- Alyssa I love you! You are one of my best friends, and I always have so much fun with you. OUR VOICES! DEGRASS-SII!! DRAKEE!! This year, I'm pretty sure we've grown the closest we ever have been. I cannot wait until next year in college, ROOMMATES! It's gonna be so much fun. I really hope we'll be friends forever too! AHH, this year was awesome. Foods class with everyone, our t-shirts we made, which guess what we still need to have that bonfire! We have so many memories together from just this year, and when you first moved here and played softball together, remember this... CIVILIZATION! Me, you, and Jess got everyone saying that! I love you Alyssa. Ashten Brinker- We have gone through so much these past years. We have been friends since around 8th grade, remember you used to hate me in like 7th grade, well that changed quickly, and we grew so close. You mean so much to me, and I way back to daisies, and I'm so glad we have continued to stay close throughout the years. You are crazy, and helped me get out of my shell, and I thank you for that. Although you call me you're little Asian doll, or tell me not to use my Asian trickery on you, I can promise you I'm not Asian. We are constantly thinking the same thing, and I love our facial expressions. I can't believe we are growing up so fast, but I know no matter the distance nothing will come between us. Carly, Victoria, Jordan, Ashlee, and Casey, I leave you with the most exciting nights I've had. Driving for hours, Applebee's, inappropriate phone calls, and fake fights at 2 am. I will miss you ladies so much, but we have this summer to spend time together. I love you guys. NL Field hockey, I leave you with Coach S, who will be even more extreme due to the new baby. I wish you guys the best of luck with that. I leave you summer practices, 3 mile runs, the card game, our goals, wings, memory, basketball camp, you and Chelsea ALWAYS locking me in the basement, our "Maggie Springer" episode in your basement, and you laughing so hard you cried. But most of all Mack I have to thank you for always being there and for Robbie if it weren't for you, we never would have found one another, so thank you Maggie. I'm looking forward to summer nights by the campfire and sleepovers every day, but not only the next few months but for the rest of our lives. I love you, Mack! Chelsea: I leave to you every memory we have ever shared from the first day of Tech Ed, basketball, every day of middle school was always an adventure with you. I leave to you the lists of nicknames we had for one another, basketball camp, millions of sleepovers at Maggie's, playing blindfolded hide and go seek, you guys locking me in the basement after a scary movie, sleepovers at my house eating carrots and ranch dressing, FIDDY CENT! and you barking at my Grandma on the phone. Chels, you're the craziest friend I have and well...ZUMBA BABY ha. I love you, Chels! Jess B: I leave to you the million memories of softball, our crazy sleep-

overs, the beach with your Grem, those really ummm...."fancy" cherries we ate at your Grem's after swimming in a thunder storm, wrestling....there are a million and one memories that I don't think I have enough room to write. And finally, I leave to you the arguing and all the laughter. I love you, Jessicuuhhh!

overs, the beach with your Grem, those really ummm...."fancy" cherries we ate at your Grem's after swimming in a thunder storm, wrestling....there are a million and one memories that I don't think I have enough room to write. And finally, I leave to you the arguing and all the laughter. I love you, Jessicuuhhh!

Addison: You have made this year so much fun. I leave to you every memory, every joke, every laugh and every smile. Addison between "Imma do a back flip", 26 days, preparing for graduation and the class video, having the honor painting next to you and watch you use every one of your artistic abilities it has been one of the greatest years. I leave to you thankfulness for always keeping me grounded and always taking the time to talk. Addie, I will always remember every joke and every line our painting table shared. All I have to say is YOU BETTER COME HOME AND VISIT ME!!! I'm really going to miss my pick me up at the end of the day. I love you, Add...facebook confirms. And as quoted from our infamous art table, "you've been touched by an angel girl" ha. Shelbie: I never want you to forget the memories we have. That first day of middle school we met and clicked instantly, we were inseparable. We did everything together. I leave you with every memory we ever shared; hoping we'd be called in the same homeroom on the first day of middle school, your mom yelling at me in the car every time I gasped before I would say something, Derek scaring us in the middle of the night and making us spill the coffee all over your floor, field hockey practice, walking around the cemetery for hours pushing Julia in the stroller, and confiding in one another. I leave you with the memory of falling off the top bunk in the middle of the night, swimming and walking and talking, and just talking about everything, just being there for one another, you getting mad anytime and the greatest bond I've had with a high school sport. Heather, Rachel, and Kiana, I leave you with the next generation of the trio. Keep up the good work, and I better hear about getting into districts next year, or there will be beat down! Also, middle school. We better see each other out of high school best friend. I love you! There are so many more people to mention, Stephen Irwin, you are one of my best friends and I don't know what I would do without you. I remember middle school I would always turn to you and say, 11:11 make a wish! I miss you best friend! Marissa Fatzinger! Chelsea Schneider! Jocelyn Rodrigues! I love you guys!!! Megan Vernon! Our son Caden whom you never saw. Marcus Neith! Spanish class!! Josh Caley! Dan Huemmer! Anatomy class and volleyball! Love you guys. Amanda White! Earl do the twirl! I love you! DIZZLE! Can't forget you! You were the best coach ever! Josh Gyory! Elementary School! And our comics! All I gotta say! I could mention so many more people but we only have one page to write on! I love you guys! We better keep in touch! Russell Jacoby, you're always in our hearts.

Alisha, be nice to the underclassman, I know the attitude you have girly. To everyone else I didn't mention I leave you with an apology. I'm sure you are important to me; I just couldn't fit you in this.

I called you Sheb but it stuck all the same.. The memories are countless. Shelbie, I miss what we had but know this, no matter where life takes us and no matter what we do or where we go and no matter how much we have grown apart, I'm always here for you, I'll always be the best friend ready to come and save you. Any memory I have of middle school and my first year of high school, you were always right by my side, no matter what the situation. We fought, we worked it out and got over it. I hope you take care and know that I am always here for you forever and always no matter what. I love you, Shelb. Mrs. Leslie: It's safe to say that it has been my greatest honor to have had the pleasure to have a person like you in my life. You keep me grounded and yet are so thoughtful. You are the person from Northern Lehigh that I have the utmost respect for. It has been my honor to have set foot in your homeroom to grace you with my presence every morning, to learn the parts and functions of the human body but at most, to have been advised not only as a class officer, but as a person. I want to thank you for everything you have done for me. I will never forget you and everything you have done. Thank you, Mrs. Leslie. To Mr Kern: I leave to you every memory from video committee. Thank you so much! All the underclassmen: Don't wish these high school years away, they fly by fast enough. Be kind to one another, look out for one another, be there for each other but most important, RESPECT ONE ANOTHER. No matter if you are in different grades, different ages, have different interests, different beliefs or views, you are all one family. You're going to watch one another grow and change. Be there for one another, just like a family because that is what you all are, no matter freshmen, sophomore, junior or senior, YOU ARE ALL A PART OF THE BIG NORTHERN LEHIGH FAMILY.

Ashten Brinker

I leave to you our million memories; Larry and softball, our crazy sleepovers at Jessica's, prank calling, beach, and you'll forever be the friend that I tan with at 6 o'clock at night with by the pool. All those times at the races...you were my entertainment and my partner in crime. Anatomy class, lunch, field hockey, softball, my house, your house, life; no matter what we're doing, where we are, together or apart, who we meet, no matter where life takes us and no matter how much we get on each other's nerves you'll be my bestest friend, I'll always be there for you and I'll always love you like my sister. Forever and ever bestest friend. Devon: I leave you with Charlie!, ohhh no, our long conversations, public speaking class, Marty and gym class, the cards we made for one another for our sixteenth birthdays, Mrs. Turoscy's class, the videos that always seemed to pause every five seconds, and Mr. Schmidty in the library. Devon you are the most sarcastic and straight forward friend I have and I thank you for that. Kutztown in two years with all the dirty history majors, I hope you can holdout until I get there. Don't let them take you to the dirty side, Devon! And finally, I leave you with our famous line, "I have a story for you!" I love you, Devo! Maggie: I leave to you all the memories we've shared from middle school up to now. Every lunch table

Dominic Barone

I cannot believe this. Our time here is drawing to a close. Yeah well, I have to start this last will and testament thing sooner or later, and I will with the person who I considered my best friend for a very long time, Steve Irwin. Steve - I leave you with soccer (you're the one who got me into it), running the pool table, Malone's pizza, trick basketball shots in your driveway, and being my first official best friend ever. We had great times and I'll never forget them, no matter how long ago they were. Secondly, I leave you, Martin Everhart, with the race course, the basement, ripstikin', being straight Italian, getting out of the car when people tailgate us (tailgate kit consisting of paper, tape, and a baseball bat), and Nona constantly telling you to take out the garbage and laughing at things no one said. I love you, and I hope that this isn't it for us as friends. Next, Jimmy Cope, Drew Rice, and Clint Hardy, I leave you guys our good friend Vlad, Jimmy's attic, soft acoustic music, future parties at the Frieden's fire hall, and twenty McDoubles ("you're going to hate me for this"). I now leave you, Shawn Boland, with The Pink Floyd Experience ("Hey man! You're not the one who's been up since five in the morning"), my car breaking down at the A-plus, Melinda's party after my car broke down, getting a traffic violation ticket for wearing a v-neck, and the most comfortable pair of amazing underwear. Feel free to use my treehouse whenever you'd like. I hope I don't see the last of you for a very long time to come. I love you. The next people I give things to are Shelbie, Shelly, and Tasha. I give you

Applebee's, Julia's temper tantrum, and the destruction of my hat. She's evil and you know it. I now leave you, Travis Murphy, with the first day of my life when I think I was blind when I met you, your truck, dictionary terms in the middle of English, thinking of ways to make money, and writing all my feelings down on a piece of paper while lying on your bed. I hope you stick around. Dylan Fatzinger, I leave you with the being bipolar, Marty's basement, soccer, making me seriously angry, the angry punch, your minivan, wiring speakers in it, and public speaking in which we both absolutely loved. I hope, and am sure you will be successful in life. Marlena Schynder, I leave you amazing pictures from your Nikon, your wonderful mother, cheek kisses at Target that end up failing hard, diner adventures with the diner adventure crew, St. Patrick's Day, and senior class video. I wish I had more memories with you because you are amazing, but it is what it is. Devon Caton, I leave you with a lot of stuff! Starting with "I don't hate you, I strongly dislike you." I leave you with the best backrubs after economics ever, innocent flirting, great hugs and perfect height for them, talking to you about my girl problems, dealing with me everyday in first block for the whole year, diner adventures, watching Knappy and myself sing songs about thee most random things possible that came to our mind that instant, forcing decisions that I was on the fence about, and lastly, raising our right hands. I also want to leave, you, Mr. Allen with many detentions. I gave you headaches ninth through eleventh grade and I apologize for the multiple hours of quality time I spent with you in your office. I was an angel for you this year. Do not lie about that. I also give the lunch ladies an A for effort and creativity. You ladies make slammin' food out of nothing, and you guys should have a day where the students cook you lunch for once. No matter what day it was, you ladies were always nice to me and I'll carry those memories with me for the rest of my life. I now conclude my last will and testament with leaving my last lunch ever with the title "Best Lunch Ever." That lunch showed what Northern Lehigh really is about. There were so many different people in our lunch that made it fun and we never were bored. I've never had a lunch, in all four years I've spent here, with so much food thrown, and so many tables interacting with each other via food. It was amazing, and I thank every single person on the side of the lunch room I sat in for making it the best ever. Now, for those of you, who are oh so glad to see me leave, just remember. I'm not really going anywhere. I'll be on all of your television screens.

Jess Buzinski

"IDK Ashley maybe you should try not staring at the creepy 40-50 year olds!" Lindsey - I leave you awesome times at work and a couple of lessons that we have just recently learned: sometimes undercover cop cars are not really undercover cops, it is creepy to sit in a McDonald's parking lot for 5 hours so don't wonder why when the cops knock on your window, whining is annoying and you are just asking to be punched in the face if you stomp your feet like a little girl (when you are a fully grown man), getting wet at work should NEVER happen!, my apparently deadly finger hugs that Luke loves so much, and lastly and most importantly if you want to punch someone in the face make sure you clock out first! Cody: My brother I leave you all our childhood memories, picnics, vacations, snow tubing, and New Years Eve parties. As much as I'm happy to be finally graduating, I'm really going to miss this place and all of the memories I have made here.

Kaity Reese

First off I would like to say that even though I am graduating, I will miss this school. Roaming through the halls for twenty minutes and passing each class room like 15 times but that is what happens when you go to a school that is not bigger than its own football field. I would like to thank all of my friends, the ones who stuck by me since we were in first grade, the ones who I met this year, and the ones who I met in middle school. Candace Wood - I leave you with ecology class, sleepovers, walking to Thomson's to get a bag of chips, and the one and only race I went to with you. I will miss you girly, have fun your senior year. Love you. April Whiteman, my little sister, I leave you with anatomy class and the 5 test a week we had. I love you, have fun being a senior and enjoy it. Jess Gilbert -

I leave you with study hall, gym class, and I can't forget chilling out at your house. I don't know what I would have done without you and your family. You all really are my second family. I love you and behave! Deanna Suozzo - I leave you with the many sleepovers, our friendship. I love you girly and I will always be around if you need me. Gabby Krupa - I leave you with trips to the mall, trips to see Joey play soccer, pool parties, and all the other memories. Have fun in college and text me every day, I love you twin! Nicole Missmer - girly we may have grown apart throughout these past few years in high school but we are still friends. I leave you first grade, Mrs. Fella's class, doing my monkey's hair, sledding down the big hill, climbing the tree, the thousands of sleepovers we had, and going to nanna's house over the summer, I love you. Brittany

Brogan - where do I start, wait I no HOLLA! I leave you our nicknames from Mr. Tout, BB, and Kaity Kakes. Also I leave you with chemistry class and the crazy stuff we did this year. I love you and keep rascal in control. Heather Schellhamer - my new best friend. We may have only met last semester but I feel like I've known you for years. I can tell you anything and trust you with it. I leave you everything, sleepovers, attaching the sled to the four-wheeler, and chemistry class. Girly, I don't know where I would be without you in my life; I love you and have fun in your senior year. I'll come visit you. Robert Gilbert - where do I start? Maybe back in 8th grade when we first met. Those were the days. We weren't close friends but we were at least friends. I leave you with math classes, chemistry class and how I did your homework and classwork for you, including making you come to my house so you could pass chem. But now we are the best of friends and even when I move onto college I will keep in touch, I never want to lose you as a best friend. I love you mini son, stay strong and keep out of trouble. Dana Marie Suozzo - we first met in 8th grade. In fact it was in home-room. You sat one seat behind me, and you were always quiet. Until one day when you were absent and I locked your locker for you so Jared couldn't get in it. That is when we became the best of friends. These past five years are filled with lots and lots of memories in fact too many to write down. So girly I leave you everything, sleepovers, prom, the camper, and soon to be graduation. To which I don't want to come. I will miss you so much even though I will see you just about everyday. You truly are my best friend and I don't think I could ask for a better one. I love you d-dub. Mommy - I thank you so much for working at the high school while I was here. Without you here I would have gotten in so much trouble, including the whole timeframe when I really came out of my shell. So thank you for being here and being my hero. I love you. Now it's time to say goodbye, I wish this school and everybody in it the best of luck. Goodbye.

Lauren Buskirk

AmyJoy Benninger - You were my first friend and the first person to make me feel accepted here at Northern Lehigh. The last 3 years have been memorable and interesting. I leave you "Coming in at 10:25 AM? Heck Yes!", we got to hear about Pin and Emma!, Michelangelo's old car, and how I was so tall I couldn't sit in the back seat because my legs would be up to my chest. Jenna Lynn Freed - You and I became friends starting on the bus. I leave you Kelly, and the loud bus rides with Dom and Joel. We had our ups and our downs but I knew I could always talk to you about anything. I also leave you sleepovers at my house and making videos with the sombrero. Even though we grew apart this year I want you to know that you have a place in my heart. Alexis Nicole Eltz - Allentown! The looks people gave us when they found out we were from Allentown! Rookies. HOW MANY WINGS CAN YOU EAT?!?! My 16th birthday when you and Kayla stayed over and I was freaking out because I didn't think you guys would like each other cause you were too different. Our Sleepovers, our talks, and talking about our 50th reunion. The best sleepover we ever had, Monster Duet, Freddy Krueger, Blockbuster, Guitar Hero with Matthew Thomas Green! The last 3 years have been amazing and I wouldn't ask for anything else. I want you to know I love you dude! Lindsey Gracey Buskirk - 14 years! Once you started talking, you never shut the heck up, but I'm cool with it. Remember when my hamster Houdini escaped? The last 3 years we have shared a room, a small room with stuff everywhere. Even though we are only cousins, I grew up with you and I feel closer to you than that. We don't agree on a lot, like guys, TV shows, movies, stores in the mall, but we still have fun and I appreciate that since I am not able to see my sister. You're kind of like her replacement. Dustin Lee Keich - We had our own language when we were little. No one knew what each other was saying except us. Then Lindsey came along and I sided with her because she was the girl, but you Dustin are awesome. You may do stupid stuff but I have respect for you. Just be careful about everything. Try hard in school, go to college, and be nice to Brogan! She may be bossy but every girl is bossy. Just make her happy and she will do the same to you. Follow Aunt D's plan, it might be best in the long run.

Megan Hildebrand

Deanna Suozzo - One day we are sneaking salamanders into your house through the bathroom window and the next day we are on the phone struggling what to write in our last will. Where did the time go? It seems like last week we were in your backyard finding a melted piece of metal and a squirrel skull and fighting over who got to keep what. For the record you got the skull. We have been through everything from fights with each other to being there trying to keep each other strong through tough times. I can never thank you enough for all that you have done for me Deanna. Remember our Hinder concert and Jyneal dancing to Bye Bye Bye on the way there. One of the best nights of my life, as you said it was the perfect end to Summer. And trying to find that cute kid in the corn maze another best friend moment. Also remember that we were born 9 months apart according to the piercing pagoda records and yelling at Justin at the Kempton truck pull, playing hide and seek with your hamsters and then losing them, the Tic Tac war we had at Marcus's, he told me a few months ago he is still finding them. There are so many more memories that I want us both to remember there just isn't enough room on this paper. Deanna I want to promise you that we will have more date nights to Friendly's and Carmike and then talk about how hot the actor in the movie was. How could we not? We are best friends. Thanks for everything Deanna. I would be lost on more than one occasion with-

Gabby Krupa

We are sisters in a great family. I love you guys. Softball coaches - Thank you for taking the time to help make us a better team, you have pushed us to be a good one. Christina S - My cousin, I leave you memories of when we were little and when I missed you when you moved but you came back. Once it's gone you can't go back, this last year flew by so fast and I'm going to miss it. So, good luck and have fun.

out you. Dana Suozzo - Dana you have been there for me since 1st grade and I couldn't have asked for a better friend. I want to leave you so much but mostly I want to leave you Adam Becker, my 10th birthday party, sleeping in the same sleeping bag, making you have the worst house when we played Barbies in my attic and forcing you to be the dentist Barbie. Dana I know our friendship won't end because NL is over. We have been through too much together. Thank you for being there for me. Erica Rauch - Sorry Erica, but I can't let you forget being called Rojo Grande in Spanish. Erica I love you! We haven't been friends since elementary school but we have definitely had some good times in the few years we have been friends. Like walking in the parade for Interact and failing at stopping and singing Yankee Doodle Dandy, our McDonald's run before PSSA testing, and making my children's book with you, Deanna, and Phil. You, Phil, Deanna, and I have to promise to keep in touch with each other when we are home on break next year. I also leave you a pair of headphones so you can stop stealing mine and listen to your own music whenever you want to. I leave you Harry Potter's class and all those stupid things you whispered when we should have been paying attention. I also leave you her spell book. Quick! Non Sequitor! Post hoc ergo preptor hoc! Your friendship did mean, still means, and will always mean so much to me. Brandi Owens- I leave you the CRAP machine we built way back when, and all our fun times in Mr. D's class. I leave you all those years of friendship we have shared. I know we have drifted apart, but they were the best part of my school years. Jessica Szuchyt- BAM! 6 inches! 90 degrees NORTH of the mouse pad! Haha I leave you all of our fun times in musical. Rikki: I leave you Pablo. You can probably find him stocking some yogurt or cheese. I'll never forget our homeroom conversations about him and all those other completely random guys. And never forget Paco, even though you never actually saw him! And you have to remember when we were creeping through Emerald. Good times, good times. Jess: I leave you all the creepy guys on 309, Wendy's, Susie's, your "cheesy" soul mate, our boyfriend at the Schnecksville Diner, and ETHIOPIA! Never forget our driving adventures! Like sitting at a random gas station when your car broke down and just eating crackers. And I'll just throw in your favorite quote, "I wanna lick you from your head to your toes!" This past year has been so fun! I'll miss it and I'll definitely miss you! By the way, where does a man with one leg work? Laurel: I leave you New Moon with the freaks screaming at Taylor Lautner, the autobahn game, and 4 years of English class memories. Always remember our hatred of Annie from 90210. "Did she die yet?!" By the way, the Civics field trip and the one in Philadelphia junior year were hilarious! I'll definitely miss all of our fun conversations! Oh, and we should totally go to Britain together and maybe catch a glimpse of Ed Westwick! Josh: I leave you with your undying love for me. Ur my BFFL. Plz, don't be jealous ppl. I-

Hop, like I hop on one leg, so hilarious, right?! Matt, you know like door mat, so not funny. Ching Chong? Um, I think she got some soy sauce on my test. "Where is she going?-Smoke break.-Well that explains a lot." I will definitely miss how much you made fun of me, like right now when you're reading this. I will never find someone who could replace your humor! Oh, and can I have your email address? Taylor: I leave you with the magical floating skateboard! And Jesse McCartney! And Gossip Girl with your hero

Jenny! J-Rod: I leave you with the memories of EHP that you will always cherish. Trust me, you will treasure them because I'm freakin' awesome. And if you ever need help with chemistry in college, you should definitely call me because I could offer you my insight into the knowledge. (PS: You'll always love me and how stupid I am!) Julie: I leave you with lots and lots of weird music! Devon: I leave you with fabulous memories of Wednesday nights! Chels: Even though you don't go to NL anymore, I'm gonna be retarded and write you one, because you'll always be part of this school! You'll always be my best friend and I'll always love you. Well anyway, I leave you with the food network and all the freaks on it, the Sims (with frozen French toast sticks), eating everything, "Come on Eileen," growling at people for walking too slow, and "mmmmkay, where's my car?" And all our fun camping trips and sleepovers together. We have so many memories, and so many more to make! By the way, I'd definitely walk "1,000 miles" for you baby! Aaron: I leave you lots and lots of smiley faces.

Julie Wagaman

Throughout my years of high school, friends have come and gone. The ones who have stayed are mostly the softball team. You girls have kept me sane and I would like to leave you with the following: Jocelyn- You and I go way back; from the driveway days to "here's your quarter" to our crunchy nights. Although we have had our roller coaster of quarrels and laughs, you are the one who's always been there. Many softball games with us have been a blast and I will always remember Shamokin! You will always be my support and I will never let you go. BFF. Nick- It has been almost a year and a half, can you believe it? You have pushed me to be the best I can be at everything, especially school. Our time has also been full of lots of fun times; the lake (racing, riding the tubes, rope swinging, laser tag, squirting bumper boats, ice cream, and cards), four wheeling, going to your dad's, yard sale hopping, fires, the 10 show, me falling asleep as soon as a movie comes on, and so on and so on (see 'the crew'). Hopefully there will be many more to come. I leave you with my heart. I love you. Tamara- to you I leave you our song, Starkle Starkle... story time on the bus, speed camp and centerfield. Maggie- I leave you with Sals, our talks, and sleepovers at your house. Keep throwing hard out on the mound too! Kristi- your practical jokes trained me not to be tricked. Thank you. You always know how to cheer up any room and your Carlos was a huge help, keep him safe, and of course I leave you all our fabulous dance moves. Erika- you are the best catcher I could have asked for. You make me look good out there. Don't hang your head. I leave you all the green dye in the world and a house full of clowns. Also, 21 waffles, 3 pizzas and 84 pizza rolls. Jen and Kayla- You can split ketchup and mustard between you. Payton- I leave you with a car so you can drive yourself places, a microphone to always remember my lovely singing, and dancing at Hummels. Softball underclassmen- you three have been a vital part of the team and you have helped make it a great year. Good luck in your next 2-3 years. Whole Softball team- First, I leave you slip-n-slide, sleepovers, Nick hitting Erika with a rock, all the food you can eat, bike rides, fires and pussy willow. Now seriously, we have been through many ups and downs through the seasons but we stuck through it all. We are truly a family and a team. Thank you girls for all the memories. "Thank God for Burmas" FSU! Cross Country girls team- I leave you with all the snowy, rainy, and windy days we ran through and the pee on our rock. The crew- you guys are all crazy and there are few dull moments. I leave you with all the bulldog beverage you can drink, fires at the kremposky's, the man cave and man zone, water fights, man hunt, golf ball game, pool, P90X, the mountain, the blow up doll, dodge ball, Grandma's boy, McDonalds, and four wheeling in the snow. Everyone - Best of Luck in everything you do. Be the best person you can be and never let anyone tell you you can't.

Sam Barthol

Ginaboo - We've been best friends ever since kindergarten and I wouldn't want that to change after graduation. Both of us have been through a lot; "chex mix," the miller monster, trick or treating in Slatedale, "the book," late night phone lines with insane strangers and all those crazy summer nights. We have so much history here and I'll never forget a single day of it. I leave you with all of those memories "bestest buddy" and you will always be my faveurite, spelling error intentional. P.s. Bobby, I leave you my hippo silly band. I hope you enjoy it. Tori - I leave you with the most important thing of all, blue mountain. Snowboarding with the whole crew was amazing, especially with your "brother." You introduced me to my boyfriend of forever and I thank you unbelievably for that to this day. Me, you, and Dena have some interesting memories looking back all starting at band camp, and not the kind that everyone else is thinking about. I won't ever forget all the crazy summer parties we had, our so called secret language for note writing, sneaking out to go ghost hunting in Jersey and a lot more I can't exactly mention, like our clever nicknames, but all that's left to say is "Billy baby." Jessica, Brandi, and Steph - Jessica, I leave you all the art supplies in the world and of course, chunky lipstick. Let's remember all the sleepovers we had, laughing continuously for no apparent reason. Brandi, I leave you Ruby Tuesday's croutons, which we need to enjoy some more of. I leave you pre-prom and every day of colorguard together. Also, I'll never forget your "monkey face" jokes. Steph, I know we've had one tough year, but we need to put it all behind us. I can only have one Buh so saying that, I leave you with every single video we've ever made all of high school. The Brisky films, The Memoirs, and the multiple movies we slaved over for Brandi's birthdays. May the 3MC's survive. Devon and Lena - Devypoo, I leave you the movie Teeth, your favorite of all time. I won't forget all the times of pure laziness we shared watching movies, eating slim jims and drinking coke, your necessities to survival. Let's not forget our after school talk sessions with grandma too and figuring out that a gas key exists. Lena, I wish I owned Victoria's Secret so I could leave you with all the underwear ever made. I'm glad to have served you on panty patrol and I do leave you with Calcy and

Elmo. Alyssa and Laurel - To my evil twin Laurel, I leave you with the beginning of our friendship in 5th grade to the entire summer after sophomore year and our sleepovers literally every single night we could possibly get. I won't forget our Charlie's Angels fascinations and golf cart incidents from way back in the day. Alytha baby, I leave you with all of the same and my front yard, to do obscene actions to passing cars. I also cannot forget our tent parties, the sleepovers we had in Tori's "little house," the weekend in Chambersburg and to the unforgettable movie/bowling weekends we had with the Shawns and Hutchy. Danielle - Although we've lost touch recently, I still consider you one of my best friends. "Giggles" and "Bubbles" during indoor field hockey and the dunk-a-roo fights at lunch in middle school shows how far back we go. I leave you with our ten weeks in a row streak, our bowling adventures, and mountain house experiences with wild ducks in the paddle boat. Marcus and Victoria - I leave you with the tubing staff, with some unfortunate others included. If it wasn't for that job, we wouldn't have been such close friends as we are now. I also leave you two McDonald's sun-daes, poppers and silly string, and some incredible bails on rails. Lastly, to everyone else I couldn't squeeze in, I leave you everything from inside jokes at school and street racing to Walnutport, to past relationships, super bouncy ballin' and some pretty crazy C lunch food battles will never be forgotten. I lived my life the way I was supposed to and I have all of my friends to thank for that.

Zion Moore

Travis: I leave you the unfinished, haunting, little box of childhood dreams hidden away as a reminder of your shortcomings with the promise to help you fulfill them all and then some, the conversations that leave us feeling even worse but without anything to say considering the "circumstances", all of the ridiculous feelings about almost everything that we share, finishing every song that you start singing so you do not end up alone, every look that has a million words hidden behind it and the names we have for each other, looking out the window with you and your Pokémon dog, presents, both the given and received, the fake ones that are only a figment of your imagination, all of the change you find on the ground being head up to give you just a bit more luck, a pig farm in some random state like Oregon, teaching you how to paint, saving you from as many bad ideas as possible, unlimited cranberry juice and a cell phone that only we know the number to, to the future which we already feel how things should end up. Joseph Lear: Random visits and shady pizza, off roading and roofing to MGMT, painting master pieces and speaking lore, the secret plan that you must carry out next year and a summer full of strange surprises and building a house because we just should. Huff: I leave you all of the volleyball games and mcdonalds pit stops, going to the mall to buy tight pants and the chef who killed the snowman on homecoming night,

Maroon 5 and our lovely harmonies, all of the night drives in your car and the terrifying time on the railroad tracks. Justin: To you I leave batman and that awesome costume, Chinese food and the O.C., way too much, explosions in the sky and lococomotion, along with all the good conversation and sound effects, Chuck E. Cheese, Friday night lights, and your tough dad, the time when you could not fight because you had glasses on and K. Jones class. Shannon: I leave you an amazing guy who is smart and is worth the time, conversations in german class and singing in Deutschland and going on a picnic. Jared & Chris: I leave you a wedding in the near future and all the time you guys have made me smile. To my sister: I leave all of the secret hellos, the crazy lunches and the gifts we made for each other just for fun, endless boxes of cheez-its and speaking so fast that only we can understand each other. Sam: My sister's best friend I give you my slippers, a hair cut and a sexy man, lovely music and you look grand with your hair up. Corey: The man who taught me all I "know" thanks a bunch for never letting me forget the little girl I was until you decided to grace me with your knowledge. Ha. H. Vaughn Reese: I leave you our first meeting and your skin tight pants, that movie I never watched, all the time I caught you off guard, little sexy, our wise conversations and heated debates the many things we have yet to talk about and the fact that you have the most lovely name and I get to say it every time we converse. Rachael: I am sorry for that noise that you now constantly make, I leave you all the off-key songs in painting and all of the masterpieces we have created side-by-side. Zach Ritz: Baby I leave you a full lunch table and full of evenings fulfilling our massive list of movies which we have yet to start watching, endless summer nights with the perfect music for the perfect moment, a green suit to play clue and look spiffy in, the crazy pictures and numberless days spent after school painting when all you wanted was to be asleep, and the fact that you are not going to end up like your brother. Emily: My wild best friend, I leave you all of the clothing you have yet to steal, our same size feet, the looks that only we understand and finishing each other's sentences, dying your hair whenever you want even if I hate the color, many nights spent watching some of the most horrifying movies ever, the first shows and some of the best thing I've experienced, all of the ridiculous pictures and face paint at 2 A.M, the millions of nachos I have yet to make you and making up for the lost time when things fell apart, and finally something that works out and leaves us both smiling with the satisfaction that we will both be okay, actually better than fine, GREAT. I love you all more than anything and I hope you will succeed above and beyond your wildest dreams because all of you are so talented and will impact the lives of others in amazing ways if only you let yourself.

Courtney Romanishan

High School has shown me how great so many people can be, but now that it's over I begin to change. I need to leave it behind & discover who I want to be, in this process I'm leaving so many amazing people behind with some memories worth cherishing. Lekota- my spitting image, I leave you a lifetime of experiences, the "bad girlfriend" label, a book yet to be written, & a trip to our past, our memories, our laughs. Michael- my lost friend, I leave you a stalker's love, an apology from tear-filled eyes, random visits, & a secret flame that to this day has not been extinguished. Dan- my outspoken friend, I leave you 207 study island questions with a finally passing grade, our crazy texts about simple nothings, & our conversations with topics of extremely loud people. Aute- my side-kick, I leave you a boxer puppy to share Doritos with, a bad temper to hide behind, & a friend who walks like he's leaning up against a wall. Semester 2 block 2 biology- my C average, I leave you all with the assumption that "encyclopedias are for babies," hours of homework that receive 5 points for completion, our AIDS blood lab, & our field-trips to every corner of the world. As I walk out these doors I thank you all for showing me that high school is the most memorable time of your life & I hope you all make the best out of every situation to come. Just remember you only get one chance at life, & you should do whatever it is that makes you happy.

Class of 2010: I will remember all the great times in which we had together. I wish you the best of luck in life and in your future plans. To the Underclassmen: Take advantage of all the opportunities in which Northern Lehigh High School has to offer, even though there are not many. NL Wrestling Managers: I leave you with filled out bracket sheets. Even though you annoyed me throughout the season, I couldn't have asked for a better crew of managers. I will always remember Jess calling me a psycho for no apparent reason, and Samm for just being her crazy self. La clase de Sr. Hauck Block 4: Espero que Uds. Puedran en enfierno. Es cierto que Maria Lear quebre el viento en la cara de Alf Malaska. Es posible que Paco ahogue en la lengua de reir. Espero que Maria Zellner y Carlos Gavalla viven en el van acercarse el rio. Es dudoso que Eva Reese y Yolanda Brogan sean excelente en vida. Ojal que te vaya bien. Colin and Connor Hedash: Thanks for all the great times during our athletic academic careers. I will always remember being on the same teams as you having fun and packing a big one. Haha. Colin keep putting Connor in his place and Connor don't kick Colin in the face when he tells you to. Lucas (Dude Love) Dise: Thanks so much for moving to Northern Lehigh. I will always remember going out to eat and getting yelled at for throwing snowballs out your window while driving in Allentown. I will never let the Indian Women or any other women break up the "LCCC". John Deere: You inspire me... Christian (Fruity) Freudenberger: I will always remember the Friday nights under the lights and hanging out with friends. Your birthday parties were always exciting due to your mother's presents. Good Luck at the United States Naval Academy SQUAD and I hope to stay in touch. Dan (The G-Man) Heummer: I am leaving you a bag of razors so that you can finally shave off all that German hair. Hanging out with you will be remembered forever, especially the time when Buresh hit his head off the volleyball pole during our fun filled game at Eagles Nest. Michael Buresh: I leave you a helmet and a pair of football gloves. I also recommend locking yourself in a padded room so you don't get injured. While in the room you could also work on your small hamstrings so it can carry your huge butt and big nose around. Shaun Kelly: I leave you with football tickets and cotton candy in order for you to remember all the trips with Rios and I to watch the Bulldogs kick butt on the football field, and the great Halloween Parade. Nick Moore: You're my hero!!!! Brandon (Mo) Mohrey: Your eyes are so beautiful but they are very deceiving, you're crazy man! Nick Hartman: You are God and keep it real. Zach (Rooster) Fleming: I leave you a pair of running shoes cause you know my lazy butt wouldn't be able to run as far or as fast as you. I will always remember the Brookville Wrestling Trips together. Nikko (Vein) Stevens: Keep it real man and only a month until you can do some of the late night partying. Always will remember going out to states with you and Colin. Jen Bet: Good luck at Penn State Main Campus! We all know you will be very successful in the future. Hope to keep in touch. Taylor Farber: Can words really describe it? Addie George: I will always remember the friction between us since 6th grade.

I will make history.

I will bring out the best in people. I will stay true to myself. I will meet my destiny with open arms. I will make a lasting difference. I will have faith in myself. I will have faith in humanity.

I will never look back. I will look forward to the future. I will enjoy the loneliness at the top.

I will zig when others zag.

I will put a chokehold on greatness and never let go. I will collect accolades, not dust.

I will dance on the edge of the void. I will have more real friends than virtual ones. I will never stop asking hard questions. I will say what I mean and mean what I say. I will learn the rules, then break them.

I will speak for my generation.

I will take risks and reap the rewards. I will make the footprints for others to follow. I will learn lessons in failure.

I will look truth in the eye and face the consequences. I will write a success story where I'm the main character.

But first, I will go to LCCC for two years then transfer.

Aspire.

German Students and German Club Take Trip to Ellis Island

On February 20th of this year, Frau Schmidt took her German Club and upper level German students on a day trip to Ellis Island Immigration Museum. The students spent a chilly but sunny Saturday learning what immigrants experienced as they were processed in this early Federal immigration station. They also had the opportunity to access some of the passenger records of the ships that brought the immigrants here. Some students were able to use these records to determine part of their own ancestry. A short cruise boat ride on New York Harbor took everyone to Ellis Island and we ended the day with another brief boat ride to the grounds of the nearby Statue of Liberty.

The trip was funded by a grant from the Northern Lehigh Education Foundation. Those who participated and are pictured in the photo are: Dana Fricker, Cory Wagner, Shannon Strohl, Kelli Hunsicker, Megan Vernon, Eleni Kalamaris, Jessica Schultz, Kayla Sigley, Kristy Pfrom, Calli Zaleski, Courtney Blocker, Jill Zeiser, Jessica Szyucht, Taren Fritzinger, and Maggie Sauerwine.

Some quotes from the students regarding their trip:

“I...found out that I have a few ancestors that came to Ellis Island and that made me feel connected to history.” - Kristy Pfrom

“We got insights into the struggles our ancestors went through to become an American citizen. It was easy to visualize the hundreds of people in the hallway, in which we were standing, hundreds of years ago, waiting to see if they would be allowed into the wonderful land which they had heard of.” – Dana Fricker and Courtney Blocker
