MINUTES

- Updates to Website
  - Removed employees who have recently retired or resigned
  - Added new employees
  - Updated picture carousel, some of which were taken by high school students
  - Moving forward keep what we have on the website current to our employees and pictures of our current student body and what is happening in the building
- Summer Program Survey Updates
  - Our summer programs are the biggest way that we keep students engaged outside of the academic programs during the school year
  - STEAM (Elem and MS) - 48 (goal is 70 elem and 30 MS)
  - Open Horizons Summer Learning Academy - 49
  - NLMS Bulldogs INSPIRE - 12
  - Summer SHINE Camp - 34 (partnership with LCCC - new program this year - target is 50 students - focus is to target students with delays - we expect that this will lead to an afterschool partnership with them under a grant for 6 additional years)

- ❑ Kindergarten Registration Update
  - ❑ 96 inquiries with 90 registration appointments scheduled
  - ❑ Current senior class is approximately 110 students
  - ❑ Keeping an eye on the size of kindergarten for staffing purposes
- ❑ NL Education Foundation
  - ❑ Seeking additional membership
  - ❑ Asked if we can use our communication mechanisms to assist
  - ❑ Members present supported the public outreach
- ❑ Job Fair
  - ❑ April 22nd 9AM-1PM
  - ❑ Goal to educate students on career pathways
  - ❑ 47 vendors confirmed to attend
  - ❑ Businesses, colleges, technical schools, community organizations, military, etc.
  - ❑ Recommended to add unions for apprenticeships too
  - ❑ Partnering with Angie Vasquez from CareerLink to also provide information and opportunities for students - In the future we are looking to use her to support families with employment/unemployment
  - ❑ Hard assets and fly over to make it impactful for our students
