DIRECTOR'S NOTE

With the unprecedented success of last year's Little Shop of Horrors, it was important to aspire to a level we have not yet seen from the Northern Lehigh Little Theatre. Dirty Rotten Scoundrels is a contemporary show with complex lighting and scene changes, which allowed the creative genius of Steve Shuey, Chris Bennett, and Randy Utsch to really shine. Instead of one fixed set like last year, we have several set pieces that move, often in the middle of scenes with no break. This also posed a challenge for our new choreographer, Megan Hoffman, who had to stage full cast dance numbers around moving set pieces. We hope you will agree that the finished product is an exciting display that keeps audiences engaged and guessing throughout the show.

In addition to complex scenery and lighting, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels also presents an opportunity for many seasoned as well as new cast members to show their talents. There were over 20 roles to fill in this large production. In addition to our actors and actresses, there was an opportunity for us to show off our skilled dancers with our feature dance troupe, introduced this year under the leadership of Mrs. Megan Hoffman as well as student dance captain, Brie Williams. With the scale of the cast, I was pleased to bring longtime friend and colleague Mr. Andrew Kern onto my staff, acting as both assistant director as well as publicity director.

I absolutely love the story of Dirty Rotten Scoundrels. Based on the 1988 film starring Michael Caine and Steve Martin, it's the story of two con men competing for the affections and fortune of a young woman who has secrets of her own. The stage adaptation has great musical numbers as well as hilarious double crosses and one-liners that will leave audiences in hysterics!

I would like to thank you all for your continued support of the Northern Lehigh Little Theatre. Without you, this time-honored tradition would never have made it to its 44th successful year in the spotlight!

MR. NICHOLAS J. SANDER
DIRECTOR
